

Governor of the State of Texas

---

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

WHEREAS, the Forty-first Legislature at its Second Called Session passed House Bill No. 81, being "AN ACT to fix the compensation of County Commissioners in every county having a population of more than 12,250 and less than 12,350, according to the United States Census of 1920; regulating the payment of same; and declaring an emergency"; and

WHEREAS, said Bill has been vetoed for the reasons set out in the following statement, which has been filed with said Bill in the office of the Secretary of State:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE
July 22, 1929

The following Bill, being "AN ACT to fix the compensation of County Commissioners in every county having a population of more than 12,250 and less than 12,350, according to the United States Census of 1920; regulating the payment of same; and declaring an emergency", is hereby vetoed.

This Bill is written in the language of a general Bill, but is effective in only one county and is written to increased the salary of the County Commissioners of that county. It is similar in its nature to eighteen other Bills passed at the Second Called Session of the Legislature, which were vetoed.

For the reasons stated I hereby veto this Bill.
